Singapore Zoo. At this beautifully designed zoo where animals live in naturalistic habitats, you can trek along foot tracks or hop on to a guided tram to see natural wonders like the endangered white tiger and the world's largest collection of proboscis monkeys. The exhibits are divided into 11 zones, each a unique immersive experience waiting to be explored. In the Fragile Forest you will enter a massive biodome that recreates the River Safari offers an unforgettable adventure inspired by the world's most iconic rivers. This $160-million attraction features state-of-the-art exhibit design as well as the world's largest freshwater aquarium.

Housing one of the world's largest collections of freshwater fauna, the park features over 6,000 animals including 40 threatened species. And that includes Singapore's resident giant pandas, Kai Kai and Jia Jia.

Take a leisurely stroll and meander through the park on an exploratory river adventure of the Mississippi, Congo, Nile, Ganges, Mekong, Yangtze rivers. With the pristine Upper Seletar Reservoir as a backdrop. River Safari is also home to the Giant Panda Forest, Squirrel Monkey Forest and the enchanting Amazon Flooded Forest.
